

And God said, "Let the waters under the sky be gathered into one place, and let the dry land appear." And it was so. God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas.... The earth brought vegetation: plants yielding seed of every kind bearing fruit with seed in it. And God saw that it was good.
(Genesis 1:9-13)

For the beauty of the earth
For the glory of the skies

where you're going if you know
Who you're following."

WHO WE ARE

Created in 2009 by members of Drew United Methodist and Gilead Presbyterian Churches, the Spirit Walkers share in fellowship as they enjoy the beauty of God's creation. Hikes of varying levels occur once monthly, and are accompanied by the reading of Scripture along the way. We welcome people of all faiths to join us!

All hikers are required to sign a waiver and a permission slip (for those under 18); these must be on file with the group before embarking on a hike or other outing.
